

EMPLOYEE HEALTH STANDARDS REQUIREMENT

Cypress Solutions, LLC requires that all food service workers undergo a medical examination annually on their anniversary date of employment as required by USCG.

7.3.3. Employee Health Standards. Medical examinations shall be required for all contractor personnel working in the Food Services portion of this contract. Examinations shall be performed at the Contractor's expense. A state-licensed physician shall conduct medical examinations and state the employee is free of any communicable disease that may be transmitted in a food service environment. Completed medical exam forms shall be submitted to the Contracting Officer and COR. Medical examinations shall be required annually upon the anniversary date of the employee's date of employment. The WS shall keep copies of examination results.

Cypress Solutions will pay for the cost of the annual medical exams. Employees must make themselves available to schedule and undergo the exam prior to their first day of work and annually thereafter. Failure to receive the exam could result in loss of work hours and pay, as the employee will not be allowed to work without it.

Your supervisor will provide you with information for setting up appointments.
